

Baptist Children's Home & Family Services
Director of Fundraising & Marketing
Carmi, Illinois

DB&A Executive Search & Recruitment is excited to announce the search for the next Director of Development & Marketing for Baptist Children's Home & Family Services (BCHFS), a multi-faceted family service ministry consisting of four affiliate ministries that work together to protect, heal and restore struggling children and families. This position rounds out a small, passionately committed executive team that has a big vision for increasing organizational impact and growing charitable income. This position is perfect for an entrepreneurial, mid-career level, development professional with donor relations and nonprofit marketing experience. The successful professional must care deeply about underserved families, mothers, and children in crisis and feel called to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

In terms of site locations and programs, BCHFS has a significant footprint in Southern Illinois but serves families, mothers, and children from the entire state of Illinois. The Baptist Children's Home (BCH) residential care and administrative offices are in Carmi, Illinois "a small town where you can make a difference." This might be the lifestyle change that is perfect for a talented fundraising professional.
